Notice: The applicant must submit copies of the commercial recreation use permit proposal to be reviewed by the County in accordance with the terms of the Morgan County Code. Once a commercial recreation use permit proposal is submitted, it is subject to compliance reviews by the various county departments and contracted staff, and may be returned to the applicant for revision if the plans are found to be inconsistent with the requirements of the County Code and all other applicable laws. All submitted commercial recreation use permit proposals shall be reviewed in accordance with Title 8 of the Morgan County Code. Submission of a commercial recreation use permit proposal in no way guarantees placement of the application on any particular agenda of the county land use authority. It is strongly advised that all commercial recreation use permit proposals be submitted well in advance of any anticipated deadlines.

The County Code and Staff may require additional information to clarify compliance with ordinances and submittal requirements before acceptance of the commercial recreation use permit is provided

Morgan County has various types of commercial recreation use permits. Due to the complexity of land use regulations it may not be a full collection of all requirements, but it will certainly help you get started. As an applicant, it is your responsibility to know, understand, and address the laws that govern commercial recreation uses, and how they apply to your project. The County will review your application for compliance with these ordinances. For ease of access, codified ordinances are provided online at: http://www.sterlingcodifiers.com/codebook/index.php?book_id=837. Feel free to contact Planning and Development Services if you find trouble navigating County ordinances
